

SATURDAY 22 APRIL 2023 | ADVERTORIAL, ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY PROMOTIONAL FEATURE

Pune educationist awarded for her contribution to the society

L-R: Sushama S Chordiya, Ramesh Bais and Dr Sanjay B Chordiya

Founder of Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy (SWELA), and vice president of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, Sushama S Chordiya was awarded the Pride of Maharashtra 2023 Award recently. The governor of Maharashtra Ramesh Bais and cabinet minister (Ministry of Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises) Narayan Rane presented the award for her contribution towards women empowerment, rehabilitation, betterment of the society at the 23rd India SME Excellence awards in Mumbai.

Sushama is responsible for overseeing general administration for the smooth functioning, managing accounts & finance, guiding faculty members, mentoring students especially outstation students and conducting social events, along with providing active guidance in cultural events of all her institutes. She formed SWELA, which is a voluntary institution for conducting edu-socio & women empowerment initiatives.

A new achievement for this educational group

(L-R) Sushma Sanjay Chordiya receiving Pride of Maharashtra Award 2023' from Ramesh Bais, Governor of Maharashtra with Sanjay B Chordiya, Chandrakant Salunkhe, Anup Sahai

Sushma Sanjay Chordiya, Vice President of Suryadatta Group of Institutes was recently honoured with Pride of Maharashtra by Ramesh Bais, Governor of Maharashtra in Mumbai. "Receiving the prestigious award is a matter of pride for Sushma Sanjay Chordiya, who is the founder of Suryadatta Education Foundation and Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy, and also the Vice-President of the educational group of institutes. The award was conferred during the India SME Leadership Summit and 23rd India SME Excellence awards on March 25, 2023. It was organised on 30th SME Foundation Day celebrations in Mumbai. Ramesh Bais, Governor of Maharashtra and Narayan Rane, Cabinet Minister of MSME, Government of India graced the occasion," shared the management of the educational group, adding, "The award was conferred upon Sushma in recognition of her contribution towards women empowerment and rehabilitation, betterment of the society and upliftment of the downtrodden."

The management further adds, "Since the year 1999 Sushma has been a powerful force behind the stupendous growth of the educational group of institutes. She is responsible for overseeing general administration, smooth functioning, accounts and finance, guiding faculty members, mentoring students especially outstation students and conducting social events and providing active guidance for cultural events. She is a noted philanthropist and a social worker."

Pune educationist awarded for her contribution to the society

Founder of Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy (SWELA), and vice president of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, Sushama S Chordiya was awarded the Pride of Maharashtra 2023 Award recently. The governor of Maharashtra Ramesh Bais and cabinet minister (Ministry of Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises) Narayan Rane presented the award for her contribution towards women empowerment, rehabilitation, betterment of the society at the 23rd India SME Excellence awards in Mumbai.

Sushama is responsible for overseeing general administration for the smooth functioning, managing accounts & finance, guiding faculty members, mentoring students especially outstation students and conducting social events, along with providing active guidance in cultural events of all her institutes. She formed SWELA, which is a voluntary institution for conducting edu-socio & women empowerment initiatives.

L-R: Sushama S Chordiya, Ramesh Bais and Dr Sanjay B Chordiya

A new achievement for this educational group

(L-R) Sushma Sanjay Chordiya receiving Pride of Maharashtra Award 2023' from Ramesh Bais, Governor of Maharashtra with Sanjay B Chordiya, Chandrakant Salunkhe, Anup Sahai

Sushma Sanjay Chordiya, Vice President of Suryadatta Group of Institutes was recently honoured with Pride of Maharashtra by Ramesh Bais, Governor of Maharashtra in Mumbai. "Receiving the prestigious award is a matter of pride for Sushma Sanjay Chordiya, who is the founder of Suryadatta Education Foundation and Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy, and also the Vice-President of the educational group of institutes. The award was conferred during the India SME Leadership Summit and 23rd India SME Excellence awards on March 25, 2023. It was organised on 30th SME Foundation Day celebrations in Mumbai. Ramesh Bais, Governor of Maharashtra and Narayan Rane, Cabinet Minister of MSME, Government of India graced the occasion," shared the management of the educational group, adding, "The award was conferred upon Sushma in recognition of her contribution towards women empowerment and rehabilitation, betterment of the society and upliftment of the downtrodden."

The management further adds, "Since the year 1999 Sushma has been a powerful force behind the stupendous growth of the educational group of institutes. She is responsible for overseeing general administration, smooth functioning, accounts and finance, guiding faculty members, mentoring students especially outstation students and conducting social events and providing active guidance for cultural events. She is a noted philanthropist and a social worker."

Philanthropist & social worker honoured in Mumbai

Sushama Sanjay Chordiya, the founder of Suryadatta Education Foundation's Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy and vice president of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, was recently honoured with the Pride of Maharashtra 2023 award. The award was presented by Ramesh Bais, governor of Maharashtra, and Narayan Rane, cabinet minister of MSME, during the India SME Leadership summit and 23rd India SME Excellence Awards in Mumbai. The award was bestowed upon Chordiya for her contribution towards women empowerment and rehabilitation, as well as for her efforts towards the betterment of society and upliftment of the downtrodden. She was one among the three other distinguished personalities who received the honour.

Since 1999, Chordiya has been the powerful force behind the growth of the brand. She oversees the general administration of all institutes under the group, manages accounts and finance, guides faculty members, mentors students and conducts social and cultural events. She is a philanthropist and social worker, who founded the Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship & Leadership Academy (SWELA), a voluntary institution for conducting edu-socio and women empowerment initiatives.

Sushama S Chordiya receiving Pride of Maharashtra Award 2023 from Ramesh Bais, governor of Maharashtra, with Sanjay B Chordiya

A new achievement for this educational group

(L-R) Sushma Sanjay Chordiya receiving Pride of Maharashtra Award 2023* from Ramesh Bais, Governor of Maharashtra with Sanjay B Chordiya, Chandrakant Salunkhe, Anup Sahai

Sushma Sanjay Chordiya, Vice President of Suryadatta Group of Institutes was recently honoured with Pride of Maharashtra by Ramesh Bais, Governor of Maharashtra in Mumbai. "Receiving the prestigious award is a matter of pride for Sushma Sanjay Chordiya, who is the founder of Suryadatta Education Foundation and Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy, and also the Vice-President of the educational group of institutes. The award was conferred during the India SME Leadership Summit and 23rd India SME Excellence awards on March 25, 2023. It was organised on 30th SME Foundation Day celebrations in Mumbai. Ramesh Bais, Governor of Maharashtra and Narayan Rane, Cabinet Minister of MSME, Government of India graced the occasion," shared the management of the educational group, adding, "The award was conferred upon Sushma in recognition of her contribution towards women empowerment and rehabilitation, betterment of the society and upliftment of the downtrodden."

The management further adds, "Since the year 1999 Sushma has been a powerful force behind the stupendous growth of the educational group of institutes. She is responsible for overseeing general administration, smooth functioning, accounts and finance, guiding faculty members, mentoring students especially outstation students and conducting social events and providing active guidance for cultural events. She is a noted philanthropist and a social worker."

Pune educationist awarded for her contribution to the society

L-R: Sushama S Chordiya, Ramesh Bais and Dr Sanjay B Chordiya

Founder of Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy (SWELA), and vice president of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, Sushama S Chordiya was awarded the Pride of Maharashtra 2023 Award recently. The governor of Maharashtra Ramesh Bais and cabinet minister (Ministry of Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises) Narayan Rane presented the award for her contribution towards women empowerment, rehabilitation, betterment of the society at the 23rd India SME Excellence

awards in Mumbai.

Sushama is responsible for overseeing general administration for the smooth functioning, managing accounts & finance, guiding faculty members, mentoring students especially outstation students and conducting social events, along with providing active guidance in cultural events of all her institutes. She formed SWELA, which is a voluntary institution for conducting edu-socio & women empowerment initiatives.

Pune-based philanthropist honoured in Mumbai

Sushama S Chordiya receiving Pride of Maharashtra Award 2023 from Ramesh Bais, governor of Maharashtra, with Sanjay B Chordiya (R)

Sushama Sanjay Chordiya, the founder of Suryadatta Education Foundation's Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy and vice president of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, was recently honoured with the Pride of Maharashtra 2023 award. The award was presented by Ramesh Bais, governor of Maharashtra, and Narayan Rane, cabinet minister of MSME, during the India SME Leadership summit and 23rd India SME Excellence Awards in Mumbai. The award was bestowed upon Chordiya for her contribution towards women empowerment and rehabilitation, as well as for her efforts towards the betterment of society and upliftment of the down-trodden. She was one among the three other distinguished personalities who received the honour.

Since 1999, Chordiya has been the powerful force behind the growth of the brand. She oversees the general administration of all institutes under the group, manages accounts and finance, guides faculty members, mentors students and conducts social and cultural events. She is a philanthropist and social worker, who founded the Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship & Leadership Academy (SWELA), a voluntary institution for conducting edu-socio and women empowerment initiatives.

TUESDAY 25 APRIL 2023 | ADVERTORIAL, ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY PROMOTIONAL FEATURE

Pune-based philanthropist honoured in Mumbai

Sushama S Chordiya receiving Pride of Maharashtra Award 2023 from Ramesh Bais, governor of Maharashtra, with Sanjay B Chordiya (R)

Sushama Sanjay Chordiya, the founder of Suryadatta Education Foundation's Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy and vice president of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, was recently honoured with the Pride of Maharashtra 2023 award. The award was presented by Ramesh Bais, governor of Maharashtra, and Narayan Rane, cabinet minister of MSME, during the India SME Leadership summit and 23rd India SME Excellence Awards in Mumbai. The award was bestowed upon Chordiya for her contribution towards women empowerment and rehabilitation, as well as for her efforts towards the betterment of society and upliftment of the down-trodden. She was one among the three other distinguished personalities who received the honour.

Since 1999, Chordiya has been the powerful force behind the growth of the brand. She oversees the general administration of all institutes under the group, manages accounts and finance, guides faculty members, mentors students and conducts social and cultural events. She is a philanthropist and social worker, who founded the Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship & Leadership Academy (SWELA), a voluntary institution for conducting edu-socio and women empowerment initiatives.

TUESDAY 25 APRIL 2023 | ADVERTORIAL. ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY PROMOTIONAL FEATURE

Pune educationist awarded for her contribution to the society

L-R: Sushama S Chordiya, Ramesh Bais and Dr Sanjay B Chordiya

Founder of Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy (SWELA), and vice president of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, Sushama S Chordiya was awarded the Pride of Maharashtra 2023 Award recently. The governor of Maharashtra Ramesh Bais and cabinet minister (Ministry of Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises) Narayan Rane presented the award for her contribution towards women empowerment, rehabilitation, betterment of the society at the 23rd India SME Excellence

awards in Mumbai.

Sushama is responsible for overseeing general administration for the smooth functioning, managing accounts & finance, guiding faculty members, mentoring students especially outstation students and conducting social events, along with providing active guidance in cultural events of all her institutes. She formed SWELA, which is a voluntary institution for conducting edu-socio & women empowerment initiatives.

WEDNESDAY 26 APRIL 2023 | ADVERTORIAL, ENTERTAINMENT INDUSTRY PROMOTIONAL FEATURE

Pune educationist awarded for her contribution to the society

Founder of Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy (SWELA), and vice president of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, Sushama S Chordiya was awarded the Pride of Maharashtra 2023 Award recently. The governor of Maharashtra Ramesh Bais and cabinet minister (Ministry of Micro, Small & Medium Enterprises) Narayan Rane presented the award for her contribution towards women empowerment, rehabilitation, betterment of the society at the 23rd India SME Excellence

awards in Mumbai.

Sushama is responsible for overseeing general administration for the smooth functioning, managing accounts & finance, guiding faculty members, mentoring students especially outstation students and conducting social events, along with providing active guidance in cultural events of all her institutes. She formed SWELA, which is a voluntary institution for conducting edu-socio & women empowerment initiatives.

Pune-based philanthropist honoured in Mumbai

Sushama S Chordiya receiving Pride of Maharashtra Award 2023 from Ramesh Bais, governor of Maharashtra, with Sanjay B Chordiya (R)

Sushama Sanjay Chordiya, the founder of Suryadatta Education Foundation's Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy and vice president of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, was recently honoured with the Pride of Maharashtra 2023 award. The award was presented by Ramesh Bais, governor of Maharashtra, and Narayan Rane, cabinet minister of MSME, during the India SME Leadership summit and 23rd India SME Excellence Awards in Mumbai. The award was bestowed upon Chordiya for her contribution towards women empowerment and rehabilitation, as well as for her efforts towards the betterment of society and upliftment of the down-trodden. She was one among the three other distinguished personalities who received the honour.

Since 1999, Chordiya has been the powerful force behind the growth of the brand. She oversees the general administration of all institutes under the group, manages accounts and finance, guides faculty members, mentors students and conducts social and cultural events. She is a philanthropist and social worker, who founded the Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship & Leadership Academy (SWELA), a voluntary institution for conducting edu-socio and women empowerment initiatives.

Pune-based philanthropist honoured in Mumbai

Sushama S Chordiya receiving Pride of Maharashtra Award 2023 from Ramesh Bais, governor of Maharashtra, with Sanjay B Chordiya (R)

Sushama Sanjay Chordiya, the founder of Suryadatta Education Foundation's Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship and Leadership Academy and vice president of Suryadatta Group of Institutes, was recently honoured with the Pride of Maharashtra 2023 award. The award was presented by Ramesh Bais, governor of Maharashtra, and Narayan Rane, cabinet minister of MSME, during the India SME Leadership summit and 23rd India SME Excellence Awards in Mumbai. The award was bestowed upon Chordiya for her contribution towards women empowerment and rehabilitation, as well as for her efforts towards the betterment of society and upliftment of the down-trodden. She was one among the three other distinguished personalities who received the honour.

Since 1999, Chordiya has been the powerful force behind the growth of the brand. She oversees the general administration of all institutes under the group, manages accounts and finance, guides faculty members, mentors students and conducts social and cultural events. She is a philanthropist and social worker, who founded the Suryadatta Women Entrepreneurship & Leadership Academy (SWELA), a voluntary institution for conducting edu-socio and women empowerment initiatives.